MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

"... and we'll arm and we'll swing, and we'll heuch and we'll sing, and set to our partners in style ..."

As I was reviewing the upcoming events for the next few months, I was reminded of these words from a song made famous by the late Andy Stewart: "Dancing in Kyle." We will certainly be doing a lot of "arming and swinging" in the next few months.

We began with another successful St. Andrew's Ball, where we were definitely "setting to our partners in style" to the inimitable music provided by Lyle Ramshaw and John Taylor. Once again, Doris Fisher and Kris McGinnis and their merry bands of helpers provided yet another "haute cuisine" supper. Supper over, the dancing began with the help of our "in-house" piper, John Cahill, and our honorary grand marshals, Barbara and Michael Mackenzie.

The Christmas season could not be welcomed in any better way than by the annual

PASSING

It is with sadness in my heart that I announce the passing of Robert (Bob) Brooks, husband of Chris Brooks, and a long-time member of the Los Angeles Branch and dear friend of many dancers. Bob passed away on Nov. 10 at age 82.

Bob and his wife Chris were both ardent dancers in the Los Angeles Branch for almost 30 years, supporting events not only in the Los Angeles Branch but also Orange County, San Diego and San Gabriel branches. They attended St. Andrew's Summer School for three years.

Bob, a very talented musician, played keyboard, piano and accordion with Jack Rennie's Thistle Band and the Gammal Dance Band. He also played piano for the beginner's session in Manhattan Beach class, and he and Chris hosted many Scottish sing-alongs at their home. He (and Chris) loved all kinds of International dancing, including Scottish, Scandinavian, contra and ballroom.

As a longtime member of the Sierra Club,

CLASSES

Valley College

Well, we're well into autumn and there's even a bit of a nip in the air ... some days. Classes are in full swing, we're generally having our usual, wonderful SCD time.

Aase's class is going strong and is as challenging and fun as always. Plus there's a lot going on with our dancers outside of class as well.

Audrey Prest had successful cataract surgery and is almost back to her bright-eyed self!

Jeff Altman recently retired, though he seems to be working harder than ever trying to get out of what he spent a good 30 years getting into! His poor clients are having separation anxiety, and Jeff is now working full-time helping them get through it.

Kym and Alan Cervenka, our newest class couple, are already famous for winning best couples' costume at this year's Halloween Dance with their creative and fun depiction of the dance It's Not Rocket Science — congratulations!

You can't rest on your laurels though, 'cause next year Jon Reeves will be back! He was out on sick leave this time and we missed seeing what wonderful thing he would come up with.

Alice Allen went on Chris Grobler's New Zealand trip and had a wonderful time — how could you do otherwise in such a beautiful place! Terry Schaeffer was away giving a talk on historic Scottish dyes at a palace in England!!!

Aase is looking forward to seeing daughter Lisbeth and son-in-law Rick for Christmas. They didn't make it last year because their poor dog broke a leg at the last minute! And speaking of legs, Aase's is finally doing better thanks to having a cortisone shot.

I enjoyed a staycation, attending classes and just generally doing all the things I miss when I'm working.

Thousand Oaks

The Thousand Oaks class has been happily augmented by the addition of two new experienced regulars with us since summer break.

Shirley Coleman of Pacific Palisades now joins the class's two other Palisadians; she had long danced in the Culver City class. And Val Lykes of Agoura Hills brings to the class her valued experience from SCD'ing in Reno.

Also with us since summer, a most welcome addition albeit temporary, has been Dana Dunaway, generally not available on Tuesday evenings but able to have been with us for the past late-summer and fall Tuesdays.

The Nisbet household of "retirees" has been a veritable beehive of academic activity! Mary, for her own enjoyment and hardly short of academic degrees in any case, has jumped into studies for a masters degree in Scottish history offered remotely by the University of Dundee ... Dundee having been where Mary was raised.

She has copious reading to get through, not to mention significant writing as well, but she reports enjoying every minute of it. Roger is now retired from being a professor at UC Santa Barbara and, more than ever, is in demand around the world for one thing and another.

In the international-travel department, two of our Palisadians were away from us for several weeks each. Carmen Silva-Corvalán and her husband Scott were hopscotching across China and Japan, and Christa Wilk and hubby Bill were leaf-peeping et al. across Eastern Canada's magnificent autumn followed by a week's sojourn in New York City.

In the What-are-you-up-to-when-not-SCD'ing Department, class regular Magda Simonini, a native of Argentina, has long been an active participant in field hockey ... not only she but her also-Argentinian husband and their children as well. While most of our class must travel varying distances to all come together on Tuesday evenings, Magda is the one other besides teacher Robb Quint who as a Thousand Oakie can hop into her car and zip across just a couple of miles to be at class.

For us in Thousand Oaks, it does indeed take far more than a village — three counties actually. We are most fortunate to have regular attendance by dancers from geography that stretches all the way from Pacific Palisades to Goleta. The class is now on holidays break and will resume on Jan. 9.

Demonstration Team

The Demonstration Team reconvened right after Labor Day and quickly focused on the performance for the Seaside Games. Roberta opted for a program of recent and classic team dances.

Connie Walker joined us at Seaside for the first time. Grant Clark was still on the sidelines, but he pitched in as our stage manager for both days. We repeated our regular performance on Sunday morning, and then in the afternoon, we were joined by other dancers from the LA, Orange County and San Gabriel Valley branches for the "Wee Highland Ball," which gave the public a peek inside our dance parties. Thanks especially to the musicians and dancers who participated and to Mike McChesney, who explained the unique aspects of the event.

With demonstrations finished for 2017, Roberta chose to make rehearsals a time to challenge us with new and unusual dances, combined with attention to technique. We've also been able to review dances for upcoming balls, for Asilomar and for our two members who are pursuing Unit 2 of the teaching certificate.

After we break for the holidays, we will again turn to preparation of our new program, in January we will focus on the upcoming ScotsFestival at the Queen Mary in February. We hope all our members will be recovered and able to dance that weekend.

Alice Allen

Bob was the overseer for numerous weekends at the Harwood Lodge at Mount Baldy and was instrumental in arranging a number of Scottish Country Dance weekends at that rustic location, which were well attended and enjoyed.

Bob received his Ph.D. from Berkeley and worked for TRW for 32 years, where he was awarded 34 patents.

Bob's other passions were traveling, photography and being a member of the South Bay Mac Computer Users Group.

Bob will be very much missed in our local dance world.

A celebration of Bob's life will be held Dec. 2, 10 a.m., at the home of Joanne and Neil Serbin, 1131 3rd St., Manhattan Beach, CA 90266.

HEART TRANSPLANT

I have some good news I'd like to share.

This past June, our good friend and fellow dancer Linda McWade received a heart transplant at Cedars Sinai Medical Center and today, five months later, is feeling great or, as she put it, "20 years younger!"

Linda has become active at her local recreation center, making new friends and enjoying her grandchildren who live nearby.

Orange County Christmas Ball, with the music once again being provided by favorite musicians: Hood, Wink & Swagger.

Then we will say farewell to 2017 with the L.A. Branch Hogmanay Dance – a wonderful way to welcome in the New Year!

Jan. 25, 2018, will mark the 259th birthday of Robert Burns and will, once again, be celebrated at the LA/Orange County Burns Supper & Ball at the Ports O' Call restaurant in San Pedro. Music for the ball will be provided by the talented musicians of Stringfire!

Finally, I would like to wish everyone a very happy Hanukkah, a merry Christmas and a happy and healthy 2018. Be safe over the holidays. I look forward to seeing many of you at some or all of these events.

The song ends with "for there's nothing so grand in the whole of the land as to go to the dancing in Kyle" ... make that Southern California!! (With apologies to the lyricist).
