

New Class: Scottish Country Dancing (All Levels)

Dance to the lively fiddle and pipe music of Scotland.
Learn the traditional reels and jigs of Scotland from the 17th and 18th century.
Scottish Country Dancing is danced all over the world and enjoyed by people of all ages.

Registration :

Web-site: http://www.longbeach.gov/park/classes_register_online.asp
Phone : (562) 570-3111
Cost : $60.00 - 8 week session
Start Date : Saturday, September 15, 2007
Time : 12pm – 2pm
Location : El Dorado Park
2800 Studebaker Road
Long Beach, CA

Requirements :

Soft soled shoes (like dance pumps)
A love of dancing
No partner required.

The two hour class consists of :

5 to 10 minutes of warm up exercises
30 minutes of step practice and dance formations
The remaining time will be used to put the steps and formations into dances.

About the teacher, Roberta Gotfried :

Roberta has been dancing the traditional dances of Scotland since she was a student at Yale University in 1977. In 2006 she traveled to Scotland to take her teacher training with the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society of Edinburgh. She has taught many classes in the Los Angeles and has participated in numerous demonstrations throughout the United States.